

Chalayne Woodke, CPA

Board Member

Chalayne Woodke is a CPA and tax manager at Perkins & Company, a local accounting firm. Chalayne has been involved with the Portland Columbia Symphony Orchestra as a member of the board of directors for several years including a stint as Treasurer. She enjoys working with the Symphony because she believes that music should be universally available to all Portlanders.

In her spare time, Chalayne enjoys hiking, skiing and travelling. On less adventurous days, she can be found walking her dachshund, Lily, reading (the classics as well as chick lit), and checking out new restaurants on the east side.
